Library of Congress

Andrew Jackson to William Charles Cole Claiborne, January 26, 1815, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

TO GOVERNOR CLAIBORNE.1

1 Copy.

"Head Quarters 7. M. District" January 26, 1815.

All the militia now on duty will be retained in service until the expiration of their engagements, or until the movements of the enemy shall render it quite safe to discharge them.

That portion of them, therefore, to which you allude in your letter, must be furnished with supplies; and you will be right in signing returns for them.

I am very respectfully Yr Obt St